VOL. VI., NO. 279. HONOLULU, HAWAII TERRITORY, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER, 6, 1908.—SIXTEEN PAGES. Entered Jan. 19, 1908, at Honolulu, Hawaii, as Second Class Matter, Under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

HUSTACE DEFEATED BY LUCAS WHILE RAWLINS WINS OUT

Jack Lands His Delegates---Sharp Practice in the Second Precinct---Breckons Is Left Out.

Lucas defeated Hustace in the precinct in which both live, Rawlins was elected in the Second Precinct of the Fourth District despite the opposition of the Buffandeau-Catheart slate and a misuse of the official ballots to accomplish this end, but Catheart defeated the rest of the reform ticket which practically elected but three out of the thirteen nominees, and United States District Attorney Breckons and William Aylett lost out in the Third Precinct. Catheart beat Walter Dillingham and A. F. Griffiths. While the Fourth District seems practically favorable to the Lucas interests for the mayoralty nomination, in the Fifth there is a more or less mixed delegation which is claimed to be in the keeping of Achi. Such are the important results of the Republican primaries held in the city precincts yesterday afternoon and evening.

The voting was well attended throughout, but quiet, generally. In many precincts there were no contests. The election of delegates to the Territorial convention had little interest for the voters, the nomination of Prince Kuhio for delegate to Congress being generally conceded, and efforts were centered entirely in the county convention elections.

There was a well defined story going the rounds yesterday that Achi was devoting his time and energies to getting Hustace delegations elected. His reason for doing so is that he considers Hustace the weaker of the two foremost candidates for the mayoralty nomination. By shoving Lucas aside and working Hustace to the front, Achi, it is said, will then have the support of the Noleyites, or Home Rulers, for the mayoralty nomination which may be handed him by his Labor party. Achi believes that he could defeat Hustace, but isn't quite so sure about defeating Lucas. Whatever of real truth there is in this rumor, it looks like an old Achi trick, and, furthermore, Lucas is next to this move and will balk it.

First Precinct, Fourth District.
In the First Precinct, Fourth District, A. M. Brown's balliwick, Prince Kuhio, Delegate to Congress, was elected, and Dan Logan came in on the Waialae and Kaimuki vote. There was a slim attendance, the results being as follows:

Territorial--A. L. C. Atkinson, 26; John Cassidy, 25; Fred W. Macfarlane, 26; W. C. Roe, 26.
County--Charles G. Bartlett, 25; James H. Boyd, 26; A. F. Clark, 24; E. A. Doubitt, 26; Henry Van Giesen, 25; Isaac Harbottle, 26; James L. Holt, 26; D. K. Kaeo, Jr., 25; Sylvester Kahikolo, 24; D. Kaiole, 25; J. K. Kalamianole, 25; Iona Keiki, 25; Dan Logan, 24; D. Naeole, 23.

There was no opposition to this slate, so the booth was closed at 5:30.
Third Precinct, Fourth District.
One of the features of the vote in the Third Precinct, Fourth District, the "haole precinct," was the defeat of United States District Attorney Breckons and William Aylett, the latter a former member of the Legislature and more recently a bandboy. There was a pretty large vote, Clarence Cooke and Belser leading by 128 and 127 votes, respectively. The delegates elected were as follows:

Territorial--Alex. Robertson, 122; J. P. Cooke, 104; John Waterhouse, 92.
County--Clarence Cooke, 128; J. J. Belser, 127; W. E. Brown, 117; Chas. S. Crane, 115; Frank J. Kruger, 117; J. H. Fisher, 114; Theo. F. Lansing, 111; Chas. F. Chillingworth, 109; Henry Pfuger, 107; Jos. M. Little, 106; W. H. Bromley, 107; Fred G. Bush, 102; Manuel K. Cook, 102; John F. Soper, 101; Norman Watkins, 101; J. D. Marques, 101; Joseph Richards, 97.
Of the three defeated ones, William Aylett received 96; R. W. Breckons, 92; and Gus Schuman, 75.

Those defeated for the Territorial convention were S. F. Chillingworth, 43; Robert H. Baker, 35; W. L. Castle, 25.
Second Precinct, Fourth District.
In the second precinct, fourth district, including Manoa, College Hills, Pawa, Punahou, Waialae, etc., Assist-

The Australian Reception

LONDON, August 22.--The Daily Telegraph in an editorial this morning, dilating on the vast changes in the politics of the Pacific portended by the almost inconceivably magnificent reception Australia has accorded not to a British but an American fleet, says:

"It means, and is welcomed by the Australians as meaning, that the United States are determined to secure their position in the Pacific, and the demonstration they are giving of the means they intend to employ to keep their position is extraordinarily complete. What the people at home have scarcely conceived is that Europe practically has vacated the Pacific. Not a single battleship belonging to any European power is to be found in any corner of that great ocean, while America has three great squadrons there. The mastery of the Pacific was Britain's twenty years ago. The rise of Japan on the one hand and the naval renaissance of the United States on the other has profoundly changed conditions and revolutionized Australia's attitude toward problems for national defense."

The Daily Telegraph finds that Australia's ambition to have its own navy is but natural, but it thinks the American demonstration will show her how many millions the realization of such a dream will require, and convince her that her naval interests can be conserved by contributions to the British navy. In conclusion the Daily Telegraph thinks that the principle of a white Australia washed by a white Pacific held parsimoniously by the Australians conceals serious dangers, but it does not doubt that the thorny question of Asiatic immigration will be settled on perfectly honorable terms.

PARADE AFTER SAMOA TRIP

Admiral Swinburne Refers to His Visit Here in 1893.

Owing to lack of time and the interruption of weekdays by Sunday, the formal functions in honor of Admiral Swinburne and officers of the cruiser fleet and torpedo boat destroyer flotilla, have been deferred until after the fleet's return from Samoa in October. The Pacific fleet entertainment committee called upon the Admiral yesterday forenoon, and after discussing the plans of the committee, the Admiral felt that, time being short, as he wished to move out of the harbor by Wednesday afternoon for a Thursday departure, the excursion to Pearl Harbor and Wahiawa, the formal ball and the parade could well be postponed.

The Admiral was delighted with the proposed arrangements on behalf of himself and officers and expressed his pleasure in acceding to the request of the committee, voiced by Chairman George W. Smith, to have the men of the fleet parade the streets. Mr. Smith said that this was a feature which he felt the entire city was interested in, and as the Atlantic fleet had honored the city with a parade of its fighting men, he hoped the Admiral could see his way clear to do the same.

As to the excursion to Pearl Harbor, Admiral Swinburne also expressed himself as well pleased with this feature and not only wished to make the trip (Continued on Page Five.)

BANQUET TO THE ADMIRAL

The Days of 1893 Recalled at a Hospitable Board.

Many of the Annexation survivors of 1893 met last evening at the splendid banquet board of Alexander Young, in the private diningroom of the hotel, to do honor to Rear-Admiral Swinburne and to his second in command, Rear-Admiral Sebree. The host, Alexander Young, presided, and the foot of the oval table was occupied by Archibald Young, who assisted his father in the entertainment of the guests.

The table was a magnificent affair. The decorations were white carnations and ferns, with candelabra in sea-green shading. The electric lamps over the center were in red, white and blue, and ribbon streamers of the same color depended from them, joined at the points. This menu was served:

Oyster Cocktail	Pimolas
Celery	Salted Peas
Clear Green Sea Turtle Soup	an Sherry
Fond d'Artichokes	Swinburne
Casollets of Royale Kum, Marguerite
Sliced Cucumbers
Froglegs a la Palermitaine
Fillet de Bonoe Pique, Sauce Beurre
Petit Pois	Pommes Souffles
Punch au Benedictine
Roast Island Squab, Currant Jelly
Cauliflower au Gratin
Mashed Potatoes
Alexander Young Salad
Glaces Moules
Fruits	Dessert
Fromage
Cafe Noir

The gentlemen present were Hon. Alexander Young, Rear-Admirals Swinburne and Sebree, Governor Frear, Captain (Continued on Page Five.)

DYNAMITE, KAHUNAS AND PUNK AS RAINMAKERS

HILO, Hawaii, September 3.--Rain-making experiments are actually under way in the Kap district, where, since April last, the rainfall has only been twenty-two hundredths of an inch. At the Pahala plantation the cane is showing the effects of the drought quite plainly and it is the plantation people who are trying the Marston Campbell stunt.

Charges of dynamite, with time fuses, are being shot into the air from wooden cannons, exploding when seven and eight hundred feet up. The Chinese at the camps are also invoking their rain gods by the explosion of fire crackers and the incense of punk.

On Monday there was a slight shower and the credit is divisible between a kahuna, the giant powder and the punk.

As a matter of fact the dynamite explosions have failed so far to have the least effect.
